ALMARAI

MARKET

Saudi

OBJECTIVE

Create a website that showcases AlMarai products and recipes.

CHALLENGE

Almarai wanted to stimulate demand for its refreshing juices, while emphasizing its superior quality products to its audience. It aimed to achieve maximum online presence.

SOLUTION

SMV Group commissioned MindField Digital to develop the Almarai Juices website project. The website needed to be designed and developed in a reliable and user-friendly manner. It had two side panels that slide out when needed and a shortcut for all the website's highlights. There was a section for cataloging the juices, along with their nutritional facts, bottle size, and other pertinent information. There was another section where you could go through their media, which later included an entertainment page filled with games. L'AZURDE

MARKET

Lebanon

OBJECTIVE

To create an online jewelry store that promotes the company's name across the MENA region.

CHALLENGE

L'AZURDE wanted to promote its name across the MENA region, and broaden its reach to segments from different backgrounds. L'AZURDE also sought to extend its social media presence and stimulate engagement, as well as increase its store Visibility.

SOLUTION

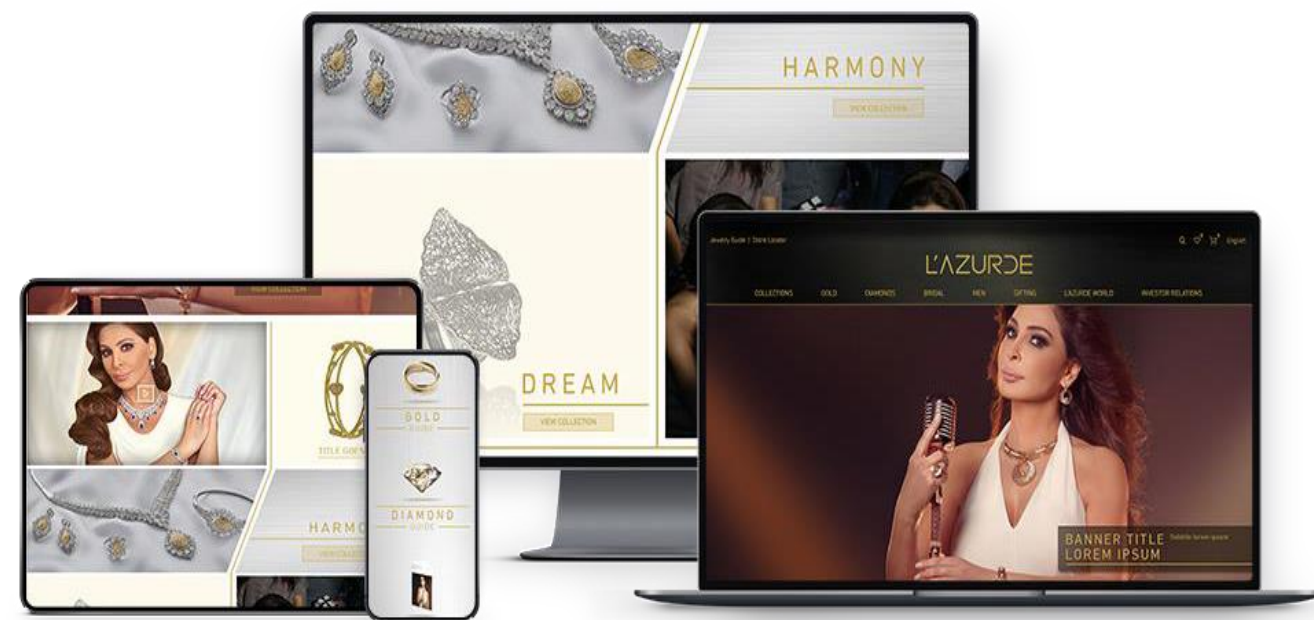

Develop a website that contains a list of product collections, the company's story, a heritage section, and additional catalogues. A one-step login through Facebook and Twitter was added. This allowed the audience to favour a product and share it with friends.

Allowed fans to create personalized greeting cards, by combining an image from the jewelry collections and a poem by Nizar Qabbany and sharing it with their friends

Developed a competition in the holidays' spirit where online fans could vote for their favourite sets, and valuable prizes were distributed to winners.

RESULTS

The competition was very well received; it increased L'AZURDE's fan base by 8,000 likes by the end of the first week. This played a major role in improving its social media presence and web visits.
